

Leadership in Action

Workshop information

Strengthen leadership skills through practical experience

Leadership isn't just about strategy – it's about taking action. Leaders who can apply their skills effectively in real-world situations inspire confidence, foster collaboration, and deliver results.

This workshop focuses on bringing leadership skills to life, helping participants build confidence in their ability to lead in dynamic and challenging situations. Part of the Empowering and Communicating practices of the practive8 model, this three-hour session equips leaders with the tools they need to translate leadership principles into impactful action.

Why leadership in action matters

Theory is important, but it's action that defines great leadership. Leaders who can translate principles into practice can:

- Build trust by demonstrating competence and decisiveness.
- Foster collaboration by guiding teams through complex situations.
- Adapt to challenges with resilience and clarity.

As Theodore Roosevelt famously said, "In any moment of decision, the best thing you can do is the right thing, the next best thing is the wrong thing, and the worst thing you can do is nothing."

Workshop features for maximum impact

- 1. Real-world scenarios
Practise leadership skills in realistic, high-pressure situations with support and feedback from expert facilitators.
- 2. Clear and persuasive communication
Take part in exercises that help you convey ideas with clarity and ensure your message resonates – even under pressure.
- 3. Prepare, practise, perfect
Includes pre-work (case studies and reflective activities) and post-workshop resources to reinforce learning.
- 4. Customised to your context
A pre-session consultation ensures the workshop reflects participants' challenges and organisational goals.
