

Presenting with Confidence

Workshop information

Engage, inspire, and deliver with impact

A great presentation has the power to inspire action, convey complex ideas, and leave a lasting impression. Yet, many leaders struggle to deliver their message with confidence and clarity.

This workshop helps participants refine their presentation skills, build confidence, and engage their audiences effectively. Part of the Communicating and Inspiring practices of the practive8 model, this three-hour session equips leaders with the tools to deliver impactful presentations that resonate.

Why presenting with confidence matters

Every leader needs to communicate their ideas clearly and persuasively. Leaders who present with confidence can:

- Influence decisions and inspire their teams.
- Build trust by communicating with authenticity and clarity.
- Leave a strong impression in high-stakes situations.

As Mark Twain said, “There are two types of speakers: those who get nervous and those who are liars.”

Workshop features for maximum impact

- 1. Core presentation techniques
Learn proven methods to structure your message, manage nerves, and deliver with clarity.
- 2. Engaging delivery skills
Practise using body language, tone, and storytelling to capture and hold attention.
- 3. Prepare, practise, perfect
Includes pre-work (speech preparation exercises) and post-workshop feedback to refine skills.
- 4. Tailored to your audience
A pre-session consultation ensures the workshop reflects participants' presentation challenges and goals.

Who is this workshop for?

This workshop is ideal for leaders, managers, and team members who need to present ideas, pitch proposals, or deliver updates. It's particularly valuable for those seeking to improve confidence and impact in public speaking.
